Biscuit—
Says
Miss Princine

"YOU never know Biscuit until you taste Princine Biscuit made after my recipe. You never know how light and airy and zesty biscuit can be until you use the new leavening,

Princine

PURE PHOSPHATE

Baking Powder

"But Princine is not only for biscuit making—I speak of Princine Biscuit merely because biscuit-making is the test of a leaven. Princine will make your favorite cake or bread recipe surpass itself. It fluffs the dough to delightful lightness and delicacy. And it never fails.

Try it in your next baking. And remember that it is endorsed by Prof. Lewis B. Allen of Westfield, Mass., and Alfred W. McCann, food expert of New York.

Princine comes in handy cups—easy to open, air-tight when closed. 1/2 lb. 15c; 1 lb. 30c. United Baking Powder in every cup. If you can't get Princine at your grocer's send his name and receive a 2 oz. sample free, or send 15c for 1 lb. cup. Don't forget to ask for "Miss Princine Biscuit Recipe."

Scene of Attack on Italian Coast.

This map shows the scene of attacks by Austrian warships and aeroplanes on Italian towns on the west coast of the Adriatic sea, and a photograph of the Duke D'Abruzzi, commander of the Italian fleet, who was credited in reports Monday with having sunk three Austrian ships and taken two others in a naval battle between Ancona and Pola, the Austrian navy base. Ancona, Jesi, and Porto Corsini, by aeroplanes. An attempt to blow up the Italian arsenal at Venice was reported. Bombs were dropped, but they were said to have done little damage.

SEVERE PUNISHMENT

Of Mrs. Chappell, of Five Years Standing, Relieved by Cardui.

Mr. Alf, N. C.—Mrs. Sarah M. Chappell of this town, says: "I suffered for five years with womanly troubles, also stomach troubles, and my punishment was more than any one could tell.

I tried most every kind of medicine, but none did me any good. I read one day about Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I decided to try it. I had not taken but about six bottles until I was almost cured. It did me more good than all the other medicines I had tried, put together.

My friends began asking me why I looked so well, and I told them about Cardui. Several are now taking it."

Do you, lady reader, suffer from any of the ailments due to womanly trouble, such as headache, backache, sideache, sleeplessness, and that everlastingly tired feeling?

If so, let me urge you to give Cardui a trial. We feel confident it will help you, just as it has but about six bottles until I was almost cured. It did me more good than all the other medicines I had tried, put together.

Begin taking Cardui to-day. You won't regret it. All druggists.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mattison of Donalds, came up Saturday to be the guests of their son, Mr. M. Mattison, on Society street, for a short time. Mr. J. W. Mattison went to Fec'ond yesterday but will return her the latter part of the week.

Party Tonight.
Miss Carol Cox and Miss Marcella Guest have issued invitations for a party tonight at the home of Judge W. F. Cox on North McDuffie street.

Mrs. Alice Sykes left today for Richmond to visit her daughter, Mrs. Weldon.

Mr. and Mrs. Rhett Parker, who have been boarding at Mrs. Rufus Burris for several months, moved back to their home on to Whitner street yesterday.

Pretty Party.
Master Alvah Power entertained about twenty of his little playmates at a delightful party yesterday afternoon at his home on South McDuffie street.

The occasion was the thirteenth birthday of the little host, and a very happy one it was.

The guests were invited for six and several hours were spent playing merry games, after which the little folks were invited into the prettily decorated dining room where a dainty sweet course was served.

Delightful Dance.
Mr. Edward Valentine and Mr. Albert Beeland entertained about fifteen couples at a delightful little informal dance on Saturday evening at the attractive home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Valentine.

Miss Elizabeth Barbot served delicious nectar on the porch during the evening, which was especially pleasant and enjoyable. Later a tempting ice course was served.

Pleasant Meeting of D. A. R.
A very pleasant meeting of Catechee chapter D. A. R. was held yesterday afternoon, with Mrs. A. P. Johnstone at her home on River street.

In spite of the rain and disagreeable weather, there was a good attendance of members, and the gloom without was quickly dispelled by the hearty and brightness of the rooms within.

Baskets of roses and daisies, were all over the house, making a very attractive scene. The principal business for the afternoon was the election of officers and resulted as follows: Regent, Mrs. J. R. Vandiver; first vice regent, Mrs. J. P. Sullivan; second vice regent, Mrs. Chester Plant; recording secretary, Mrs. T. S. Crayton; corresponding secretary, Mrs. A. P. Johnstone; treasurer, Mrs. Rufus Burris; registrar, Mrs. Phelps Sassen; historian, J. D. Rast.

The chapter made plans for its year book to be printed, and also arranged to buy an United States flag, to be placed on the high school building. On account of the election of officers, there was no program for the afternoon, only Mrs. Calhoun's report of the D. A. R. congress in Washington, was read. Mrs. Johnstone then served her guests with an elegant salad course.

Death of Hamer Crawford.
Homer, the 18 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Crawford of Pelzer, died at his home Tuesday morning, May 26, after a week of suffering.

Homer got hurt in the mill, being hit by a doll box from which death resulted.

His body was laid to rest at Cedar Grove, the funeral services being conducted by Rev. M. M. McEwen. Homer was a bright promising boy and his untimely death is deeply deplored, and our sympathy goes out to the bereaved family.

The affliction hand of Providence has been laid heavily on these parents. Only a few years ago they had a sweet little girl to get burned to death and a year ago their precious baby fell out of an upstairs window and its head was crushed.

Surely it is past our understanding why this family has been so sorely afflicted but God says in his word: "What I do thou knowest not now, but will know hereafter." They have four children on the other side of the river, beckoning them to come. The ties of heaven are strong for these parents. So strong that they cannot lose sight of the little bechoning hands that are pointing heavenward, seemingly saying, come home.

A FRIEND.
